Robeck, Jr. For further information, please contact the Managing Editor, Betty Means (x. 3832).

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS

- Episcopal: Eucharist on Monday will be held in All Saints Chapel and will be celebrated by Bishop Morris Arnold, retired Suffragan Bishop of Massachusetts. Reception follows.
- Presbyterian:
 - Women who did not receive the latest issue of Sharing may obtain a copy from the gold shelves in the Office of Presbyterian Ministries.
 - The Monday morning meeting will feature prayer and sharing, donuts and fellowship.
 - Steve Murray of Saint Andrews Presbyterian Church, Newport Beach, will be on campus April 13 from 10-2 to interview students interested in an internship. Sign up in Field Ed. Office.
 - Dr. Peter Hintzoglou, pastor of Fallbrook United Presbyterian Church, Fallbrook, CA, will be here on Thursday, April 15 to interview seniors for the position of Assistant Pastor in charge of youth and Christian Education. Sign up in Placement Office.
- United Methodist: The Rev. Ed Galyon of First United Methodist Church in Reseda will be on campus on April 12 to interview students interested in an internship for full-time summer and part-time school year. Sign up in Field Ed. Office.

NON-DENOMINATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

- Human Concerns related internships. Summer funds available. Watch the SEMI for details.
- Are you interested in sticking your neck out? All summer? And working harder than you've ever worked before? And keeping your mouth shut most of the time? And loving some possibly unlovely characters into the Kingdom? And counting on "the others" to open their hearts as well as their minds to your witness? And doing it all in Israel on a kibbutz in Galilee? And even learning some Hebrew in the process? Plus getting a good exposure to the Holy Land? But not earning a cent to put in the bank! Applications available at the SWM ISP Office.
- Commander D.J. Rankin, U.S. Navy, will be at Fuller on Tuesday, April 13, to recruit chaplains for the Navy. Sign up in the Placement Office.

SEMINARS/WORKSHOPS/LECTURES/RETREATS

- Retreat: Jointly sponsored by Mission and Human Concerns Committees. April 16-18. Low cost. Location: Newt Maloney's cabin. If interested, put a note in Box 83.
- Convocation on the Congress of the Bible and the "inerrancy issue" - Friday, April 16 at 10 a.m. in Payton 101. The convocation will feature student representatives' impressions of the Congress and a faculty panel. For more information, see the TGU bulletin board.
- On the Nuclear Arms Issue: Hear some of the medical professions' most articulate representatives speak about the dangers of nuclear war. The Human Concerns Committee presents "The Last Epidemic," a powerful movie put out by Physicians for Social Responsibility. Issues addressed include the question of a "limited nuclear war" and the viability of "civil defense." Thursday, April 15, 7:30-8:30 p.m. in Payton 101A. Free!
- Expecting? A series of natural childbirth classes begins April 5. Six sessions, covering topics such as nutrition, coaching, exercises, home birth, and the newborn. For more information, call Betty Sue Brewster, 440-1261.
- Need a chance to get away and "unclutter" your mind? Then join us for a weekend of meditation, worship, and fellowship amidst God's creation. Student retreat May 7-8. Submit your reservation and $15 fee to Box 258 by April 20. Sponsored by the Faith Renewal Team.
- A workshop on Resume Writing and Job Interviews will be led by Libbie Patterson, Assistant Director for Career Development and Women's Concerns, on Wednesday, April 7, 3-5 p.m. Room TBA. This workshop is sponsored by the Christian Formation and Discipleship Program and is open to all students. Contact Jollene Anderson, x. 3413, for further information.

MEETINGS

- Fuller Housing Residents: The Spring Housing Council is scheduled for April 7, 3:30-5 p.m. in Payton 101B.
- The prayer meeting for the unreached peoples meets each Wednesday at noon in the SWM Conference Room. Join us in praying for Hindu, Muslim, Chinese and Tribal people groups.
- Family Pastoral Care and Counseling: The next meeting will be Tuesday, April 6, in the Refectory, at 7 p.m.

FINANCIAL AID

The Financial Aid Bulletin Board is pining for a visit from you. Several grant offerings have been posted there, as well as another up-date on the progress of negotiations being made to help graduate students eligible for the Guaranteed Student Loan Program.

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

- Planning to graduate Spring or Summer quarter, 1982? Statement of Intent to Graduate must be turned in to your Academic Advisor by April 12 in order for your name to be included in the Commencement Program.
- Grade reports will be out the week of April 19th.
- Credit/No Credit: The last day to change to C/NC is Tuesday, April 6.
- The last day to add a course was Friday, April 2.
- Refund schedule for dropped classes is as follows: 100% through Tuesday, April 6; 75% through Friday, April 9; 50% through Friday, April 16; 25% through Friday, April 23. The last day to drop a course without grade penalty is Friday, April 30.
- Incomplete work for Winter Quarter must be arranged with professor. Due date (without petition) for work to be turned in to professor is April 16.
- Professors: The grades for Winter Quarter are due in the Registrar's office no later than Monday, April 5 at 10 a.m.
- According to recent interpretation of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, "Institutions may release without written consent those records identified as public or directory information" for students currently or not currently enrolled. Therefore, Fuller will release directory information (name, address, phone number, etc.) as requested. However, each student has the right to refuse disclosure. A Statement of Refusal, in writing, can be filled out and presented to the Registrar's Office.

HEALTH CARE

- Office hours for Health Services will be the same as Winter Quarter: Tuesday 11-1 and Wednesday 2-5. The office is on the third floor of the 90 N. Oakland Building.
- The deadline for initiating or changing your health insurance policy is April 26. If you will not enroll during the summer and want to extend your coverage through the summer, you must request this change before April 26.
- Smog and Lung Damage: Ever wonder how much the smog is hurting your lungs and general health? Ask for your packet of information from the American Lung Association through Box 38.
- Student Parents: At your first opportunity make arrangements with a pediatrician for your children's medical care. If you would like the names of three student recommended pediatricians, put your request in Box 38.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Secretary/Receptionist needed to work 20 hours/week. Distribution of incoming packages, some typing and filing. Contact Maintenance office, x. 3891.

MISCELLANEOUS

- Interested in serving as a theology academic advisor? All students (psych and theology) currently pursuing a theology degree who have a minimum of 1 year experience at Fuller are eligible. Job descriptions and application forms for 1982-83 are now available in the Advising Office.
- Blind student needs readers for Intercultural Communication course. Leave a note in Box 1441.
- Oasis Fellowship: Come worship and fellowship with fellow members of our Fuller community each Sunday night from 8-9 p.m. This week: A pot-luck dinner beginning at 6 p.m. in the Catalyst. Afterwards we will be going to hear Heidi and Mary in concert. For the pot-luck: A salad; H-M main dish; N-R dessert, S-Z beverage. For more info, call Jim Thoburn, 577-2388.
- Interested in a scuba diving club? Drop a note in Box 1237.

- Lost: English Bible (brownish-red); inside name "Olly Raper--South Africa." Contact Johan Engelbrecht, Box 1041, 793-9703.
- Heidi and Mary present "An Evening of Song" with Mary and Heidi, on Palm Sunday, April 4, 7:30-9 p.m. in Payton 101. The setting will be casual, the music contemporary, and the mood worshipful. Bring a friend!
- Shape up with a Song and with other Fuller women who receive a special discount for this Christian exercise program. It includes stretches, slimmastics, aerobics, relaxation and more! Classes are MWF 9:30-10:30 a.m. and TTh 5:30-6:30 p.m. at Lake Avenue Congregational Church. For more information, call 790-7784.
- International Students: An Easter conference and sight-seeing tour of San Diego and Mexico is being offered by International Students, Inc., April 8-11. Cost $25. See Laura Raab for further details.
- Graduating seniors who intend to pursue doctoral studies in New Testament and who wish to apply for the Everett F. Harrison, Jr. Award in NT should submit transcripts and vocational plans to Dr. Ralph P. Martin by April 23.
- Pasadena Athletic Club: Deadline for adding or dropping memberships is Monday, April 5, 4 p.m. If interested contact Charlie Little, Box 326 or Rick Lyon, Box 568 or stop by the Sports Office (3rd floor above the Catalyst) on Mondays 1-4 p.m. (new hours for spring quarter).
- Co-ed Softball Sign-ups are being taken on a poster on the Sports Board in the main mailroom. Deadline for sign-ups is Wednesday, April 7, 5 p.m. Also, look for forthcoming sign-ups for Tennis and Racquetball ladders and volleyball tournament to be held this quarter.

FIND OUT HOW TO ENRICH YOUR MARRIAGE!

The All Seminary Council wants the students and the Fuller Community to be aware of what MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER can do for their marriages. A special information evening will be held on campus to explain the details of an Episcopal MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER Weekend to Fuller couples. The Weekend is open to couples of all denominations. Please bring your spouse, and your questions, to this informal time of finding out how to enrich the number one ministry in your life: your marriage.

When: Monday, April 12, 1982, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Where: The Geneva Room in Payton Hall.

Who: Fuller Couples (bring your spouse).

Why: To find out some things about MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER (and sip coffee).

*Baby-Sitting will be provided for those who request it beforehand with a note to Mark Baker (box #1188).

Commencement Information

Announcements April 19

Graduation announcements are being produced for us this year by Josten's, well-known printers of diplomas (including Fuller's) and announcements. They carry the same embossed Fuller seal as the diploma. These announcements may be purchased at the Fuller bookstore beginning about April 19. Personalized name cards to go with the announcements may also be ordered through the bookstore. Bookstore hours are 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday through Saturday. If you reside outside the Los Angeles/Orange County area, and would like to purchase graduation announcements, please indicate your interest on the attached response form. We will send you an order form as soon as announcements are available.

Awards Convocation May 21

The presentation of annual awards will be held on Friday, May 21 at 10:00 a.m. at the First Congregational Church.

Baccalaureate Service June 11

The 1982 Baccalaureate Service will be held on Friday, June 11 at 10:00 a.m. in the sanctuary of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church. Graduates and faculty will meet in the Fellowship Hall at the church promptly at 9:15 a.m. to form the processional. Academic regalia is worn for this occasion. Limited childcare service will be provided (see CHILDCARE, below).

Childcare June 11, 12

Because churches near campus have their own daycare programs this year, we regret that only limited childcare service can be provided during Baccalaureate. Crib facilities are available from 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. for thirteen infants, and may be reserved on a first-come, first-serve basis by returning the attached response form.

Childcare will be provided for children under the age of six on Commencement Day, Saturday, June 12, from 10:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at the Pasadena Presbyterian Church and the First United Methodist Church. Reservations for childcare (infants and toddlers) may be made by returning the attached response form. Reservations will be filled on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Class Pictures June 12

Pictures of the graduating class of each school and of the entire 1981-82 graduating class of the Seminary will be taken on the day of Commencement, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Regalia will be worn for the pictures. All graduates are expected to be present for the pictures, which are an important part of our historical record.

You may order your own copies of any of these photographs using the attached order form. Orders may also be placed at the Seminary Business Office at any time prior to Commencement, and orders will be taken on campus Commencement Day. The photographs will be mailed in July.

Commencement June 12

Commencement will be held Saturday, June 12 at 3:00 p.m. in the Pasadena Civic Auditorium, 300 East Green Street. Exercises will last approximately two hours. Family and friends are invited. No tickets are necessary for admission, but in order to ensure adequate seating for the families of all graduates, we ask that you restrict your guests to your immediate family and close friends.

Graduates must be in the Gold Room at the Civic Auditorium at 2:00 p.m. for robing and final instructions.

Childcare is available by reservation from 10:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. (see CHILDCARE, above). Parking will be available at the Civic Auditorium at a cost of $2.00 per car.

Commencement Ceremony June 12

Final instructions for the Commencement ceremony will be given beginning at 2:00 p.m. Commencement Day. It is imperative that you be in the Gold Room of the Civic Auditorium at 2:00 p.m. Commencement Day for robing, lineup and final instructions.

Commencement Luncheon June 12

The Fuller Family Luncheon (buffet) will be held in the Garth and on the Arol Burns Mall on campus at noon. Tickets will be sold that day and will cost $4.50 ($2.00 for children). This will be a chance to relax a little and mix with Fuller faculty and friends for the last time before Commencement.

Communion Service June 12

An informal (no regalia) faculty/graduate communion service will be held Commencement Day at 11:00 a.m. in the sanctuary of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church.

Dining June 7-11

The Refectory will be open for meals on a regular basis during the week of Commencement.

Diplomas June 13

Diploma cases will be presented to each graduate at the Commencement ceremony. Normally, diplomas are mailed to graduates within three months after completion of all requirements for graduation.

Faculty/Graduate

Dinners May 27, June 4, 11

The dinner for School of Theology graduates and faculty will be held at the Brookside Country Club, Pasadena, at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, May 27. Reservation information will be in the SEMI, or you can contact Gaynia Menninger, dean's office, extension 3802.

The dinner for School of World Mission graduates and faculty will be held on Friday, June 4 in Payton 101 at 6:00 p.m. All SWM graduates and spouses are invited. Contact the dean's office for details.

The dinner for School of Psychology graduates and faculty will be Friday, June 11 at 6:30 p.m. at the Valley Hunt Club, Pasadena. All psychology graduates and spouses are invited. Contact the dean's office for details.

Regalia June 1-12

Rental caps, gowns and hoods are provided as a part of your commencement fee for Baccalaureate and Commencement. Regalia may also be purchased through the Seminary bookstore (call 213-449-1763), but only the rental regalia may be worn at Commencement.

Regalia will be distributed to graduates in the Payton Hall lobby (by the switchboard) at the following times:

Tuesday, June 1	12:00-5:00
Wednesday, June 2	8:00-12:00
Thursday, June 3	2:00-6:00
Friday, June 4	9:00-1:00
Monday, June 7	9:00-1:00
Wednesday, June 9	1:00-5:00
Friday, June 11	8:00-9:00 a.m.
Saturday, June 12	8:00-9:00 a.m.

No preliminary fitting is required. The regalia will be collected in the robing room at the Civic Auditorium immediately after the Commencement ceremony.

Women's Dessert May 17

All graduating women are invited to a dessert given at 7:30 p.m. Monday, May 17.

Questions??

The library bulletin board and the All-Seminary Council bulletin board near the Refectory will have all Commencement information posted on an ongoing basis. The SEMI will carry announcements as well.

NEW ARRIVALS IN THE BOOKSTORE include:

T. F. Torrance, Reality and Evangelical Theology (Westminster)--the 1981 Payton Lectures are now available in published form, presenting Professor Torrance's "realist" solution to the problem of meaning in the Bible.

George Van Alstine, The Christian and the Public Schools (Abingdon)--a Fuller alumnus and local pastor, drawing on his own experience of political involvement in the policy-making of the Pasadena public schools, challenges Christians to involvement in public education.

Biblical Studies

Robert M. Polzin and Eugene Rothman (ed.), The Biblical Mosaic: Changing Perspectives (Fortress)--the latest in the Semeia Studies series provides essays of interdisciplinary dialogue between biblical scholars and literary critics on the interpretation of the Hebrew Bible.

J. Weingreen, Introduction to the Critical Study of the Text of the Hebrew Bible (Oxford)--a brief and helpful introduction to textual criticism of the Hebrew Bible.

Donn F. Morgan, Wisdom in the Old Testament Traditions (John Knox)--an approach to the wisdom literature which interprets it as an integral part of the message of the whole OT; from the pre-monarchical to the post-exilic period.

Kenneth R. R. Gros Louis (ed.), Literary Interpretations of Biblical Narratives, Vol. 2 (Abingdon)--interpretations of seventeen biblical passages from a literary perspective, including an essay by Ph.D. alumnus James L. Resseguie, now teaching at Winebrenner Theological Seminary.

John Drane, Early Christians: Life in the First Years of the Church (Harper & Row)--a British evangelical scholar, in a well-informed but popular style, supplements his studies of Jesus and Paul with an introduction to the Acts and the general epistles.

Ernst Käsemann, Essays on New Testament Themes (Fortress)--the first collection of this noted scholar's essays has now been reprinted.

James Denney, The Death of Christ (Klock & Klock)--a reprint of the unabridged 1911 edition of this classic, which includes Denney's essay on "The Atonement and the Modern Mind."

Two welcome additions to Abingdon's Biblical Encounters Series:

E. S. Gerstenberger and W. Schrage, Woman and Man

Antonius H. J. Gunneweg and Walter Schmithals, Authority

W. D. Davies, The Territorial Dimension of Judaism (University of California)--Professor Davies augments his monumental The Gospel and the Land with a reexamination of the evidence in the classical sources and a tracing of the belief up to the present day.

Church History

Eugene R. Fairweather (ed.), A Scholastic Miscellany: Anselm to Ockham, The Library of Christian Classics (Westminster)--the last reprint from the LCC series makes available again this useful collection of otherwise hard to obtain sources from the scholastic period.

Bruce L. Shelley, Church History in Plain Language (Word)--a Fuller alumnus and professor of church history at Denver Theological Seminary surveys the history of the church in a form accessible to the layperson.

Jill N. Claster, The Medieval Experience: 300-1400 (NYU)--a general survey of medieval European economy, society and culture, intended as a first guide for college students.

Peter Brown, Society and the Holy in Late Antiquity (University of California)--this distinguished historian gathers together in a convenient collection essays written in the last decade dealing with the first millennium of Christianity.

Harry J. Magoulias, Byzantine Christianity: Emperor, Church and the West (Wayne State)--the historical and theological factors involved in the rise of Christianity as the official state religion and the fall of Constantinople.
Fabrizio Mancinelli, Catacombs and Basilicas: Early Christians in Rome (Scala)--a beautifully color-illustrated history of early Christianity.

Theology

Laurence Hull Stookey, Baptism: Christ's Act in the Church (Abingdon)--a professor at Wesley Theological Seminary looks at the sacrament from historical, theological and pastoral perspectives to clarify its meaning for today.

On the subject of Christian-Jewish dialogue:

John T. Pawlikowski, Christ in the Light of the Christian-Jewish Dialogue, Studies in Judaism and Christianity (Paulist)--after pointing out what he feels to be inadequacies in the Christologies of Schillebeeckx, Pannenberg, Moltmann, Kung, Sobrino and Gutierrez, the author tries to develop a Christological model which allows for the uniqueness of Jesus while still giving theological space to Judaism.

Leonard Dinnerstein, America and the Survivors of the Holocaust (Columbia University Press)--the story of America's callous indifference to the welfare of the European Jews who survived Hitler's "final solution."

A. Roy Eckardt, Long Night's Journey into Day: Life and Faith after the Holocaust (Wayne State)--a controversial study which finds the Holocaust to be the inevitable result of the historic "teaching of contempt" for the Jews by the church.

Mortimer J. Adler, The Angels and Us (Macmillan)--a philosophical book about angels, which also gives due consideration to the religious and theological dimensions of the subject.

On Anglicanism:

The Doctrine Commission of the Church of England, Believing in the Church: The Corporate Nature of Faith (Morehouse-Barlow)--a group of leading Anglican theologians tries to balance the modern individualistic emphasis on belief by exploring in a variety of ways its corporate nature.

Urban T. Holmes III, What is Anglicanism? (Morehouse-Barlow)--the last work from the pen of a well-known churchman.

Ethics

Richard M. Gula, What Are They Saying about Moral Norms? (Paulist)--a guide to the work of the leading contemporary moral theologians.

Philosophy

Frederick Copleston, Religion and the One: Philosophies East and West (Crossroad)--in the 1980 Gifford Lectures the distinguished Catholic philosopher surveys the various approaches that different philosophies have made to the question of divine reality, with special reference to the metaphysics of the One.

Barry Barnes, T. S. Kuhn and Social Science (Columbia University)--the author argues that Kuhn's historical work makes possible a real sociological understanding of inference and evaluation in science.

Robert S. Brumbaugh, The Philosophers of Greece (SUNY)--an introduction to Greek philosophy by a professor of philosophy at Yale University.

Sociology

Anya Peterson Royce, Ethnic Identity: Strategies of Diversity (Indiana University)--after surveying the major schools of thought on ethnicity, the author establishes the importance of ethnicity in the world.

Ino Rossi (ed.), Structural Sociology (Columbia University)--a collection of essays on the sociological relevance of modern French structuralism which the editor terms, "relational structuralism."
